Candle Making Suppliers

Here is a list of candle making suppliers so you can hopefully find supplies close to you in order to save some on shipping. As a disclaimer, I do not have experience with all of these suppliers, so always take care when ordering online and maybe try and do some research or call them up on the phone if you want a little more peace of mind. And if you have had any bad experiences with any of these suppliers, please feel free to let me know!
